

Hampden-Sydney College and Darden School of Business
Sign Agreement of Preferred-Application Status
January 30, 2012

Pictured, from left, standing: Susan Levine (Darden), Peter Rodriguez (Darden), Trip Davis (Darden), Drew Prehmus (H-SC), Rucker Sneed (H-SC), Mike Utzinger (H-SC), Terry de Guzman (Darden), Kellie Sauls (Darden), Michael Woodfolk (Darden), Warren Thompson (H-SC, Darden), Jim Freeland (Darden), Lee King (H-SC, UVa Curry). Seated: Dean Robert Bruner (Darden); President Christopher B. Howard (H-SC)

PHOTOS COURTESY SUSAN WORMINGTON

On Monday, January 30, 2012, Hampden-Sydney President Christopher B. Howard (above right) and Darden Dean Robert F. Bruner (left) signed a memorandum of understanding under which the President and Provost of Hampden-Sydney College may select up to five Hampden-Sydney alumni per year to receive preferred-application status to Darden School of Business at the University of Virginia.

Prospective Darden MBA candidates from H-SC may now enjoy an application-fee waiver, automatic advancement to the interview round, and guidance from the Darden admissions team.

For more information, contact the office of the Dean of the Faculty at (434) 223-6112 or mculley@hsc.edu.