

Government Major 34 cr. hrs.

DEPARTMENT CHAIR: Dr. Guy F. Burnett, Morton 201, 434-223-6982

Please note that departmental contact is strongly recommended to further aid your academic planning. Irregularities in offerings do occur as a result of sabbaticals and medical leaves.

*Note: The Government or Foreign Affairs major will not be complete until the student has publicly presented the product of his Senior Seminar paper in GVFA 470.

Government: ____ GVFA 101 ____ GVFA 140 ____ GVFA 310 (fall) ____ GVFA 370 (1 cr.) ____ GVFA 412, 413 or 414 ____ GVFA 470* (fall) ____ GVFA ____ ____ GVFA ____ ____ GVFA ____ ____ GVFA ____ ____ GVFA ____ ____ GVFA ____	Information for Government Majors: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Interested students should complete GVFA 101 and 140, as well as their math requirement prior to their junior year.</li> <li>• Students are encouraged to take classes in Classics, Economics and Business, History, Religion and Philosophy.</li> <li>• A foreign study experience is also strongly encouraged, either through a May Term course or a full semester experience.</li> <li>• With application to and Department Chair's approval, certain courses from other departments may also be accepted, such as HIST, RELI &amp; Modern Languages.</li> <li>• Students may also develop interdisciplinary majors within the social sciences with the approval of the departments concerned.</li> <li>• Majors may be interested in participating in co-curricular programs such as, Model UN or Model OAS (Organizations of American States), Society of '91, The Wilson Center for Leadership in the Public Interest and UPLS (Union-Philanthropic Literary Society). The Wilson Center minors require application for admission during the spring of the sophomore year.</li> </ul>
---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------

PHIL 216 may count as 3 of the remaining 18 credit hours.

UNOFFICIAL FORM—OFFICE OF ACADEMIC SUCCESS.

Successful completion of the above items does not alone guarantee that graduation requirements have been met. Please see advisor.

Last updated 09/17