

2026-2027 Estimated Financial Aid Cost of Attendance

The Cost of Attendance (COA) is an estimate of the educational expenses for full-time undergraduate students living either on or off campus during the academic year (fall and spring terms). The tuition amount reflects the actual cost of tuition. The housing and meals estimate is based on a Double Room with a 19-meal plan. Please note that actual on-campus housing and food costs may vary depending on the specific housing and meal plan choices. The COA includes both direct costs, which are billed directly by Hampden-Sydney College, and indirect costs, which are not charged by the college. Indirect costs encompass expenses such as Meals Not in Plan, Books, Course Materials, Supplies, Equipment, Transportation, Miscellaneous Personal Expenses, and Loan Fees.
