

Modern Languages – Minors 2019-20

DEPARTMENT CHAIR: Dr. Julia E. Palmer, Blake A 102, (434) 223-6213

Please note that departmental contact is strongly recommended to further aid your academic planning. Irregularities in offerings do occur as a result of sabbaticals and medical leaves.

A minor in a modern language requires 18 credit hours in the language at the 300- and 400-level. Three to six (3-6) credit hours of study at an approved institution in a foreign country in which the language is spoken are strongly recommended-- plan accordingly! The Office of Global Education can help you with this planning and is conveniently located in Blake A 100.

Important information for MoLa students:

- A major or minor in a foreign language is a value added to your chosen career path. In fact, as a college graduate, you will be more likely to use a foreign language in America. Interested students should start foreign language classes in their freshman year.
- When choosing a course, select courses that will enhance your language skills first! Be sure to read carefully the pre-requisites and the skill levels required. A 301 course is NOT necessarily easier than a 305 (now 311) course.
- Do not take a 400-level course in your first year of the minor, unless advised by your instructor, advisor, or Department chair.
- Minors are encouraged to strike a balance among courses on language, culture, and literature.
- Minors should consider joining the Foreign Language Honors Society, Language Clubs and participating in the Conversation Table for Advanced Students. Please see your instructor for current meeting times and locations.

UNOFFICIAL FORM– OFFICE OF ACADEMIC SUCCESS.

Successful completion of the above items does not alone guarantee that graduation requirements have been met. Please see advisor.
