

Government Major 34 cr. hrs.

DEPARTMENT CHAIR: Dr. John Eastby, Morton 318, (434) 223-6312

Please note that departmental contact is strongly recommended to further aid your academic planning. Irregularities in offerings do occur as a result of sabbaticals and medical leaves.

Government:

- _____ GVFA 101
- _____ GVFA 140
- _____ GVFA 310 (fall)
- _____ GVFA 370 (1 cr.)
- _____ GVFA 412, 413 or 414
- _____ GVFA 470 (fall)
- _____ GVFA _____
- _____ GVFA _____
- _____ GVFA _____
- _____ GVFA _____
- _____ GVFA _____
- _____ GVFA _____

PHIL 216
may count as 3 of the remaining 18 credit
hours.

Information for Government Majors:

- Interested students should complete GVFA 101 and 140, as well as their math requirement prior to their junior year.
- Students are encouraged to take classes in Classics, Economics and Business, History, Religion and Philosophy.
- A foreign study experience is also strongly encouraged, either through a May Term course or a full semester experience.
- With application to and Department Chair's approval, certain courses from other departments may also be accepted, such as HIST, RELI & Modern Languages.
- Students may also develop interdisciplinary majors within the social sciences with the approval of the departments concerned.
- Majors may be interested in participating in co-curricular programs such as, Model UN or Model OAS (Organizations of American States), Society of '91, The Wilson Center for Leadership in the Public Interest and UPLS (Union-Philanthropic Literary Society). The Wilson Center minors require application for admission during the spring of the sophomore year.

Note: The Government or Foreign Affairs major will not be complete until the student has publicly presented the product of his Senior Seminar paper in GVFA 470.

UNOFFICIAL FORM-OFFICE OF ACADEMIC SUCCESS.

Successful completion of the above items does not alone guarantee that graduation requirements have been met. Please see advisor.

Last updated 07/21