

Latin American Studies (18 cr.) Pre-2020

Minor Director: Dr. Jana DeJong, Blake A 201, (434) 223-6211

Please note that director contact is strongly recommended to further aid your academic planning. Irregularities in offerings do occur as a result of sabbaticals and medical leaves.

The minor in Latin American Studies consists of eighteen hours in addition to successful completion of Spanish 201-202 or any 300-level course in Spanish. Students pursuing a major or an additional minor in a related field (i.e. Spanish or History) may apply up to 6 credit hours towards both minors, or toward the related major. The coursework for the Latin American Studies minor must include:

A) Select 2 or more from the following: HIST 209, 210; GVFA 227; SPAN 302 or 304.

B) Select 3 or more additional Latin American related courses chosen from two different departments-- recommended courses include: HIST 322; SPAN 310, 401 or 405, or any 300- or 400-level course with a Latin American emphasis with prior approval from the Director.

_____ (300-level or above)

A student may petition the Director to add a course in substitution for one of the above if he can make the case that it is relevant to the interdisciplinary nature of the minor and/or his own specific interests in Latin America.

C) _____ INDS 450, 451, 452, or 453

D) Minors will also need to complete 6 credit hours in an approved study abroad program in a Latin American country.

An internship experience in a Latin American country may be substituted for the 6 credit hours of study abroad, provided that it includes an academic component and is approved in advance for the minor.

Study abroad courses which do not have a Latin American emphasis may be taken, but will not count toward the 18 credit hours required for the minor.

UNOFFICIAL FORM—OFFICE OF ACADEMIC SUCCESS.

Successful completion of the above items does not alone guarantee that graduation requirements have been met. Please see advisor.
